October 22—Friday

Leave the Riviera Ballroom in Audubon for your trip to Massachusetts. Take time for lunch (on your own). Discover the ghosts, ghouls and legends of the haunted city by the sea on a stroll down historic Newport's lanes. Find out who haunts George Washington's Revolutionary War quarters and listen for that mysterious drum beat coming from the bricks of blood alley (less than one mile total walking). Dinner tonight is included. Arrive at the Holiday Inn Select in Woburn, your hotel for the next two nights.

October 23—Saturday

After a deluxe Continental breakfast, depart for a tour of Salem to learn about the famous 1692 witchcraft trials that consumed this New England seaside village and hear about the rich maritime history. View elaborate deep water sea captain's homes and the famous House of Seven Gables. Visit the Old Burying Point cemetery and witch trial Memorial. After lunch (included), it's on to the Salem Witch Museum to experience the frenzy that overtook this New England coastal community, learn about the witch trials and decide for yourself if they were truly guilty! See the bewitching village of Salem which comes alive during this annual event with festivities including haunted houses, terror on the wharf, psychic readers, music, entertainers, shopping, eateries, museums and more. Dinner tonight is on your own.

October 24—Sunday

After another deluxe Continental breakfast, visit Connor's Farm and Corn Maze for an old fashioned hayride and a visit to their country store with cider and fresh donuts included before continuing home.
