THE GRAND OPENING OF THE SMITHSONIAN MUSEUM OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY AND CULTURE IN WASHINGTON, DC

Join us in celebrating the opening of the new Smithsonian Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, DC which will take place on Saturday, September 24, 2016. President Obama is scheduled to be there to cut the ribbon at the official grand opening (subject to change).

There will be a 90-minute morning program and an outdoor Soulful Festival surrounding the museum. This museum seeks to help all Americans remember, and by remembering, this institution will stimulate a dialogue about race and help to foster a spirit of reconciliation and healing.

This trip includes a guided tour of Washington which will focus on the rich Black history that has helped shape our nation. It also includes two breakfasts, two dinners (one at the rooftop restaurant of the hotel), a chance to visit the other Smithsonian Museums, as well as an afternoon to explore the Baltimore Inner Harbor for lunch and shopping.
